ROYAL ARCH TO OPPOSE 30-DAY SALOON CLOSING

Theodore Gier Charges Trickery in the Ministerial Petition Filed With the City Council.

The City Council will hold a regular meeting tonight and decide the saloon question. The saloonmen are using the vote on Saturday afternoon and Sunday for the present.

The ministers and other people want the saloons closed for thirty days. It is stated that the vote will be five against closing the saloons for thirty days.

It is also stated that the Council will vote to close the saloons on Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

GIER'S CHARGES.

That people who are working for the closing of Oakland's saloons are using unfair methods is charged by Theodore Gier, the wholesale liquor merchant, who asserts that the pretended signature of Philip Conradi was in a petition which was presented to the City Council last Monday night, asking that the saloons be closed.

"People who were circulating the petition presented to the City Council by ministers, called at Mr. Conradi's house in Piedmont Heights," said Mr. Gier today.

"They found his 17-year-old son at home, and on ascertaining that Mr. Conradi was away, they asked the boy to sign a petition. He hesitated and asked what it was for. He was told that it was nothing important, merely something in regard to street improvement. And that any member of the household could sign it. On this representation the boy signed 'Philip Conradi Jr.' When the petition was presented on Monday night the name 'Philip Conradi' was used without any 'Junior'.

SELLS TO SALOONS.

"Mr. Conradi is in the wholesale liquor business, and has dealings with saloonkeepers who sell to saloons. Some of the saloonkeepers threatened to withdraw their trade, and Mr. Conradi has been kept busy explaining the situation. In my company he called on Mayor McCall and County Clerk Cook and told them that he had not signed the petition. Whether there are any other signatures that were not genuine, I do not know. I merely cite this as an instance."

Asked as to what the Royal Arch would do at the Council meeting tonight, Mr. Gier said:

THEIR INFLUENCE.

"I do not know that anything will be done beyond assuring the Council that members of the Arch are in favor of closing the saloons on Sunday, as was done yesterday. I believe we have enough influence with other saloonkeepers to induce them to do the same thing every Sunday and I think that even if the Council does not decide that the saloons shall be closed on Sunday we will keep them closed anyway."

"What we will do if they attempt to close them every day, has not yet been determined. I feel, as many other liquor men do, that as long as San Francisco is maintaining good order by keeping closed, we should assist them to the extent of closing on Sundays, the only day that many San Franciscans have an opportunity to come over here and drink."

OUTSIDERS ACCUSED.

Some of the saloonmen who were interviewed today assert that most of the trouble comes from out of town saloons and roadhouses, in which little discrimination or judgment are used in the sale of liquors.

MICHAEL DAVITT NEAR TO DEATH

DUBLIN, May 28.—There is no change today in the condition of Michael Davitt, which causes the greatest anxiety.

MICHAEL DAVITT, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

DUBLIN, May 28.—The condition of Michael Davitt is extremely critical, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery. After steadily improving for a week Davitt had a serious relapse Sunday. He had maintained his condition during the day, but at night his condition grew worse. His condition today is serious.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The grave condition of Michael Davitt, who has for some time been seriously ill in a hospital at Dublin, has been cabled to his relatives in this city by Mrs. Davitt. A cablegram received by Miss Davitt, a sister of Davitt, Sunday morning, announced that he was sinking, and another received yesterday afternoon stated that he was "very low."

RICHARD A. McCURDY TO FACE CHARGES?

NEW YORK, May 28.—That Richard A. McCurdy, former president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, has admitted a morning paper made arrangements to return to this country is reported on good authority, which says that he will reach here in about three weeks, and put himself at the disposal of District Attorney Jerome. Later he will devote himself to defending the suits brought against him in his absence by the company he formerly headed.

Mr. McCurdy sailed for Ocherbourg on March 1. He was accompanied by his wife and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thebaud. Mr. McCurdy made no statement of his intentions prior to sailing, but his attorney, DeLancey Nicol, said that the trip was necessitated by the condition of Mr. McCurdy's health.

Some time before his departure Mr. McCurdy made arrangements whereby service of process in civil actions would be accepted by his attorney. He also, it was reported, entered into a written undertaking with District Attorney Jerome to return when his presence might be desired, and to return by September 1 in an event. Three weeks after Mr. McCurdy's departure DeLancey Nicol accepted on the former's behalf service in an action brought by the Mutual Life to recover $3,370,000 alleged to have been expended by him without proper authority.

POLICE OFFICER KILLED; ASSASSIN MAKES ESCAPE

ODESSA, May 28.—An officer of the secret police was shot dead in the main street here today. The assassin escaped. There is increasing public apprehension as a result of the activity of the Terrorists, the purpose of whose campaign is believed to be to compel the granting of amnesty.

SAMUEL BRAUNHART HAS PASSED AWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—A broken heart, combined with chronic complaint, was responsible for the politician's death. Samuel Braunhart, formerly a supervisor and recently defeated candidate, who was reported dead a week ago, died last night at the German Hospital. It is said that

TRIBUNE TO PRINT A SUNDAY PAPER

Oakland's Greatest Newspaper Will Henceforth Appear Seven Times a Week.

To the Public: Owing to a persistent and growing demand THE TRIBUNE has decided to henceforth print a Sunday morning issue, containing a full line of dispatches from all parts of the world, local and miscellaneous news, special correspondence, incisive editorials, literary features, dramatic news—in fact, everything that goes to make up the ensemble of a great modern newspaper. The first number will appear next Sunday.

It was intended to defer the issuance of this special Sunday edition till the arrival of our new mammoth sextuple press, which will be thirty days hence, but the popular demand on this side the bay for a local Sunday paper is so pressing that it has been decided to begin publication at once. It will be a live, up-to-date, clean newspaper, full of bright, readable matter and the freshest news, written crisply and presented in an attractive form. In this new venture THE TRIBUNE proposes to furnish another and still more signal proof that it is Oakland's greatest and most enterprising newspaper.

The need of a first-class Sunday morning paper has long been felt in Alameda county, and the sudden access of a large population and a new volume of business has emphasized the necessity, and at the same time made the publication of one more practicable. THE TRIBUNE has therefore undertaken to supply the deficiency, with the intention of giving the people of Alameda county a Sunday morning newspaper which will be worthy of their pride and liberal support.

None of the features which have hitherto made THE EVENING TRIBUNE so popular in the past will be sacrificed, however, in making a Sunday morning paper. On the contrary, it is intended to make the regular evening issue even better than before; it will continue to be, as heretofore, a newspaper bristling with live local and telegraphic news, crisp editorials and racy special correspondence.

WELCOMES SUICIDE TO A SLOW DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Ah Gow, a leper, who has been an inmate of the pest house for the last year, at 6 o'clock this morning brought his life to a close by hanging himself in the hallway of the place that had been his asylum. His body was found suspended from the ceiling by Gee Foo, another leper, who roomed across the hallway.

The cause of the suicide was undoubtedly the helplessness of the victim. Both of his feet had dropped off at the ankles, one hand had withered until it was useless to its owner, while the other barely had enough life in it to hold the utensils with which he fed himself.

For the last six months he had been unable to walk upright like a man, but had to crawl like an animal.

Two weeks ago the doomed victim asked the attendants for something that would make him "sleep a long time." He was given some antikanama and took this drug while it lasted.

When it ran out he secured a rope and during the early hours of the morning welcomed death in a quick form in preference to awaiting dissolution at the hands of the withering disease that made him an outcast.

BODIES ARE HORRIBLY MANGLED

Accident Occurs on Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 28.—An inbound passenger train from Knoxville, Tenn., on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, was derailed with fatal effect at Seventh and Hill streets today, as it was backing through the yards into the Louisville Union station.

Eight persons were killed and twelve or fifteen injured, one of them perhaps fatally.

Among the dead are Howard B. Coleman, a salesman of Stanford, Ky., and William Pruitt, of Lebanon, Ky., the overseer of Bailey's stock farm.

BADLY MANGLED.

There are six unidentified bodies at one undertaking establishment, and according to Coroner Harris Kelly they are so badly mangled that it will be some time before their names can be learned.

The train left Knoxville last night and reached Louisville at 8 a. m. It had passed Magnolia street and was proceeding at a moderate rate of speed when a flange on a wheel of the smoker split, causing that car to leave the track. The plunge of the smoker uncoupled the engine, baggage and express cars.

JUMP THE TRACK.

The smoker and two day coaches jumped the track and crashed into a freight train on the siding and were badly damaged.

The sleeping cars from Knoxville and Nortonville left the track also but were not damaged and their occupants were unhurt.

All of those killed met death in the smoker and day coach, it being reported that every person in the smoker was killed.

GUATEMALA THREATENED WITH A REVOLUTION

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Guatemala is threatened with a revolution which may endanger American interests in the republic, according to dispatches received at the State Department today from Minister Coombs and Schwartz & Co., an American concern owning railway and dock properties in Guatemala. The scene of the trouble is in the northern part of the republic near the Mexican frontier, but the cause is internal.

Troops are being massed by the revolutionists in such numbers that foreigners with property interests in the republic are much alarmed.

There has prevailed in the little republic for some time, and the State Department has had intimations from time to time that a revolutionary insurrection might be expected.

MURDER AND SUICIDE? MYSTERY TO BE SOLVED

CANYON CITY, Col., May 28.—The sound of two shots emanating from the home of W. C. Baldwin has caused an investigation resulting in finding the dead bodies of Baldwin and his wife. The body of Baldwin was lying on the floor, the head blown from the trunk. A shotgun was lying nearby. The wife's dead body was standing nearly upright against the wall, the head shattered by gunshot wounds. The couple were married two months ago against parental objection. A coroner's investigation will be held to determine the nature of the tragedy. It is declared that a relative of the dead woman was seen near the Baldwin home shortly before the shots were heard.

IS IT MERELY A BOND SELLING SCHEME?

A Correspondent Charges That the Syndicate's Wharf and Dock Improvements Are Only Hot Air Emanations.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I notice that the people of Alameda, Fruitvale, San Leandro and Hayward are angrily complaining about the miserable service the Oakland Traction Company is giving them. In every part of Oakland the same complaint is heard, particularly against the persistent effort to make all the street cars connect with the Key Route trains in utter disregard of the convenience of the traveling public. Coupled with the running of all street cars as an auxiliary to the Key Route ferry there is a persistent endeavor to avoid making connection with the local trains of the Southern Pacific. At Seventh and Broadway three and four cars (generally empty) at a time will pull out in succession just as the train stops, leaving passengers standing in groups to swear at the way franchise privileges are abused to further the ulterior designs of speculators.

While the Railway Traction Company is giving the people a wretched and unsatisfactory service, its twin, the Key Route corporation, is vociferously announcing that it is going to construct a great system of docks and wharves in the short time of seven or eight weeks on the Oakland water front. Most likely the scheme to bedevil people into patronizing the Key Route ferry was inspired by a desire to swell the receipts of the ferry company at this time. Why? Because the Key Route concern is getting ready to float another batch of bonds. A new bond issue is always heralded by a scheme of "improvements" that never materialize. Whenever it is desired to grab a street or the property of some private citizen the spoliation is masked as being necessary to some "great public improvement" for the enrichment of Smith, Havens et al., who control both the Traction and Key Route companies.

This dock and wharf scheme is another bond-selling device. Any man of sense knows great piers and docks, necessitating immense fills and huge retaining walls, cannot be built in sixty days or six months. On the face of it, the proposition is a tont for a bond sale that is being held for the moment in the background.

Operations have already been begun, it is alleged. What operations have been begun? Driving a row of piles across a channel used by the Henry Dalton Sons Foundry. These piles have no visible connection with any projected scheme of wharf and dock improvement. They are merely an obstruction put there to shut the Dalton foundry off from the navigable waters of the bay. They stand out there in the water like a picket fence, and were driven for one purpose only—namely, obstruction. As the initial step in the construction of a great system of docks and wharves they are about as useful and necessary as a hen coop on a lighthouse.

Assessor Dalton is one of the Dalton Sons Company, and has incurred the enmity of the Realty Syndicate crowd by making them pay their taxes. Their bonding scheme, masked behind an alleged project to immediately construct an immense dock and wharf system, gave them an excuse for venting a spite on the courageous Assessor, while exercising their predatory instincts. That accounts for the pile-driving in front of his foundry—a proceeding that is at once the evidence of vindictiveness and false pretense.

The trickery of the Syndicate crowd is further illustrated by the way they have treated the people of Alameda in the matter of the improved street railway service promised them over three years ago. This improved service has never been given, but it has been made the pretense of holding up the City Council of Oakland twice and the Alameda City Trustees once. This was the pretense on which a fifty-year franchise on Fourteenth street was obtained. It was again employed to get another franchise on the harbor front between Harrison street and Broadway. It also furnished an excuse for obstructing Southern Pacific improvements on the southern shore of the estuary.

The attempt to embarrass and politically run Governor Pardee by putting up to him a fool scheme to consolidate Berkeley, Alameda and the Western end of Contra Costa County with Oakland was prompted by the Syndicate gang. The majority of Oaklanders care nothing about this project, while the inhabitants of Berkeley, Alameda and Richmond are bitterly opposed to it. Practically the committee that tried to sandbag the Governor represented nobody but the Realty Syndicate crowd, who are scheming to get control of every public utility, as well as the political machinery, on this side the bay. These men knew that if Governor Pardee asked the Legislature to take up this consolidation scheme at the extra session it would provoke a host of antagonisms against him in his own county and probably wreck his prospects for a second term.

That this was the purpose is proved by the extravagant laudation of Mayor Schmitz as a gubernatorial candidate by the Syndicate's newspaper. The organ, it will be remembered, came out exuberantly for Schmitz the day after that official signed the ordinance handing the streets of San Francisco over to the United Railroads to be used for trolley railroads. Up till very recently the Realty Syndicate's newspaper has never lost an opportunity to denounce the mayor of San Francisco, but it became a convert to the mayor the moment the mayor became a convert to the unrestricted use of overhead trolley wires.

I see by the papers that there is a scheme to have the Legislature abolish all restrictions on the granting of franchises by municipal bodies. Is that the reason why the Realty Syndicate does not want George C. Pardee for Governor?

In conclusion, let me state that I am in favor of all legitimate improvements, and stand ready to encourage individuals or corporations desiring to make them. But I am opposed to the people being systematically humbugged by a gang of unscrupulous speculators who are working the public improvement dodge as an excuse for grabbing everything in sight, particularly as their pledges are never redeemed. If these men desire to do the right thing, they will go ahead with the long promised street railway improvements and not spring another hot air bond selling scheme, which is made the excuse for persecuting a public official whom they cannot control nor induce to consent to their evading their just share of taxation.

AUSTRIAN CABINET RESIGNS 5 KILLED AND 25 INJURED

Dissatisfied With Granting of Concessions to Hungary. Lightning Strikes in Midst of Spectators at Ball Game.

BUDA PEST, May 26.—The Emperor-King has empowered the Hungarian Government to present the common customs tariff before the Hungarian parliament as an autonomous Hungarian tariff.

It is identical to the same tariff under a new name, and is presented to parliament in order to satisfy Hungary, which maintains that she has the right to an independent customs area.

The Austrian Government bitterly opposed the concession, demanding that the tariff should come in force as a general customs tariff for both countries.

INCIPENT REVOLT STARTS IN KOREA

TOKIO, May 26.—Another incipient revolt has been started in Korea, this time at Hwangju where several hundred rebels have apparently seized and are holding the town. Hwangju is protected by strong walls, and it will be impossible to take it without artillery.

At the request of the Koreans, the Japanese have dispatched a force to cope with the uprising, which is reported to be the most serious thus far started.

SPECIAL MENTION DENIED

Government Declines to Single Out S. F. Army Men for Praise.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Army officers and privates who played an important part in fighting the fire and relieving the starving and suffering in San Francisco will not be singled out for special praise by the War Department. It is contrary to the policy of the Army to mark a few men for individual commendation unless their service be such that it demands instant recognition.

Generals Funston and Greely and their assistants were so busily engaged at the time of the calamity that they had no time to pay attention to reports of heroic deeds by soldiers and to make recommendations. The general praise of the troops and officers of the Army is believed by the War Department to be preferable to an attempt at individual commendation, which might work injustice to many deserving officers and men whose heroism was unknown to the department.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB TO MEET

The Pacific Coast Women's Press Association will meet with Mrs. Charles Neuman this afternoon, at 1700 Broadway, San Francisco.

Important business is to be transacted, including the annual election of officers.

It is expected that Mrs. Gertrude Atherton and the Hon. James D. Phelan, among others, will discuss plans for the new San Francisco. The club will hold meetings during the summer at the homes of various members. All dues are to be remitted till May, 1907.

BUFFETED BY A FIERCE STORM

CLEVELAND, May 26.—Buffeted by the fierce storm that swept Lake Erie early today the schooner Mabel Wilson sprang a leak and sank just outside the Cleveland breakers. One unknown sailor was drowned. Seven other members of the crew were rescued after a hard fight. Captain Gotham and Mate Grenier of the schooner were badly hurt while being taken from the sinking vessel.

CABINET STEPS OUT.

VIENNA, May 26.—Premier Prince Conrad von Hohenlohe-Schillingensdorf and the cabinet have resigned because of dissatisfaction with the proposals for the settlement of the common customs tariff of Austria-Hungary.

The prince says that yesterday's announcement from the Hungarian side to the effect that an agreement had been reached was unfounded.

Count von Gondek, Governor of Bohemia, has been summoned to Vienna. It is regarded as probable that he will be charged to form a new ministry.

It appears that after yesterday's council the Emperor received Dr. Weyerle in private audience and authorized him to announce to the Hungarian Parliament His Majesty's consent to the common tariff being henceforth called the autonomous Hungarian tariff. When Prince von Hohenlohe-Schillingensdorf learned of the concession he summoned the ministers and they all decided to resign.

SUBMIT PROPOSED CALL OF EXTRA SESSION

Sub-Committee to Consider Subjects to Be Dealt With by Legislature Concludes Work.

The draft of the proposed call for a special session of the Legislature as presented this morning to Governor Pardee for his approval and signature by the sub-committee assigned to the work of preparing it, has been made public in connection with the report of this sub-committee to the general committee of forty on the reconstruction of San Francisco. The report, in which the call is included, is as follows:

Century Hall, San Francisco, Cal., May 28, 1906.

To the Honorable, the Committee on Reconstruction of San Francisco; Hon. Eugene E. Schmitz, Chairman: Your sub-committee upon special session of the Legislature and State legislation, municipal departments, including police, judiciary and charter amendments, have had under joint consideration the matter of a special session of the State Legislature and of the matters that should engage the attention of the Legislature in the event of such special session.

The joint committee thus formed has been in daily session since, and including May 8, 1906, Sundays excepted, and has heard and considered great mass of suggestions and matters that has come to it from many interests, classes and localities.

In obedience to the policy laid down by your honorable body and in harmony with the wishes of His Excellency, the Governor, your joint committee, at the commencement of its labors, publicly announced that it would consider no matters of legislation the necessity for which had not grown out of our recent calamity, upon which legislative action could not prudently await the regular session of the Legislature in January next.

IN CONFERENCE.

Your joint committee desires to further say that the recommendations hereinafter made are intended to be First—To aid the Governor in the selection of legislative subjects to be included in his call for an extraordinary session of the Legislature, should he conclude to issue such a call.

Second—To aid in the framing of the legislative legislation to which their attention will be directed in the event of an extraordinary session.

These recommendations are, of course, advisory only, and are intended to assist the Governor in the law-making body of our State the views of those who are deeply and vitally interested in the important matters to which they relate.

THE TRIBUNE LAMP EDITED BY EDDIE SMITH

JEFFRIES BLAMES HERRERA FOR THE DISAPPOINTING FIASCO IN THE SOUTH

JAMES J. JEFFRIES, WORLD'S CHAMPION, WHO DISCUSSES RECENT NELSON-HERRERA FIZZLE FOR TRIBUNE READERS.

Champion Heavyweight Praises Battling Nelson Evident Sincerity But Says His Offer Involved Too Great Hazard.

BY JAMES J. JEFFRIES
Heavyweight Champion of the World

That a fight which promised so much should end in such a fiasco is to be sorely regretted. As a spectator I came to see the mill and as a spectator was disappointed. I know nothing of the inside of the matter, but to me it looks like Nelson's proposition to Herrera was more than fair and for him to agree to a handicap of nine pounds was not only fair but foolish on his part. He was taking too big a chance.

Nelson and Nolan did all the public could ask. I do not blame them and I do not blame McCarey. It was an unfortunate affair all around.

FIZZLE IS BLOW.

While such a fizzle cannot but be a blow to the game and perhaps a temporary setback to the town as a fighting center, Manager McCarey cannot be censured. He did everything in his power to bring the men together and I was more than pleased to note that there was not a hint that he was in any way implicated in any crooked business. He is the fairest of men and undoubtedly regrets the unfortunate circumstances far more than the spectators.

I know nothing of the weight of the two men, but there was something rotten somewhere. I understand Nelson weighed in as soon as suitable scales could be found and was under weight. What Herrera weighed or what his condition was I do not know. But to me it certainly looked an exceedingly bad policy for a manager and a fighter to disappoint a crowd on such an occasion. If Herrera was overweight at the hour set for weighing in, then those who looked after him are to be censured more than even. This whole matter should be sifted to the bottom. The public should know just who are responsible for the fiasco. The people may be in the dark this week and next, but the truth will out.

MEXICAN STUBBORN.

To an outsider, as I was, it looked simply a case of stubbornness on the part of the Mexican fighter and his manager, or Herrera was so much overweight he did not desire the public to know it.

Nelson was entirely right in desiring to know what his opponent weighed. The Dane is the champion in his class, he had not only a large purse at stake, but also his title and reputation. Under no conditions could he be expected to go in and fight a man like Herrera, not knowing whether he was giving away seven pounds or ten pounds. When he agreed to fight Herrera if he could come within five pounds of the weight I thought he was doing a fair and straightforward thing. He convinced me he wanted to fight. That little fellow was game and anxious. He won my friendship by his action. The manly way in which he climbed into that ring won him thousands of friends. When the towheaded little fellow crowded through the house he didn't have many admirers. Any cheer which might have arisen was drowned by the jeering and hooting. The little fellow was forced to shoulder all the blame. He was greeted with cat calls when he climbed through the ropes, but it takes more than a crowd to scare "Bat." I have heard him make speeches before. Formerly his voice has been low with little carrying power. Few have heard the talks he has made from the ring and stage. He was sincere, his voice rang true and carried to the furthest parts of the house. He didn't hang back and prout. He wanted to fight and not disappoint the crowd. They signed to fight at 131 pounds at 6 o'clock and no matter what happened to the scales in the eyes of every man there Nelson was more than ready to do the square thing.

BETTER OFFER.

After Herrera's refusal to accept this proposition I was more than surprised to hear him a few minutes later say he would fight the Mexican at 138. I called him across the ring and cautioned him not to be foolish. As he reached through the ropes I shook that hand which has dealt out so many a punch and told the boy he was giving away too much weight.

"Ain't it fair, Jeff?" he said with an appeal in his voice. "Is there anything else I could do? I want to fight, Jim; honest I do. I wouldn't disappoint all these people for all the purse. But isn't it right I should know what this man weighs?"

I fully agreed with him that it was.

Why Herrera should repeatedly refuse to get on those scales is beyond my understanding. But that fair little Dane was not done yet. What does he do but come out and offer to fight him if he weighed under 140? This was going far more than half way and any sportsmanlike blood in Herrera should have prompted him to accept such a liberal offer.

The public will not stand that kind of business and young managers should know it. It was the first fizzle I have ever seen and hope it will be the last.

Jacobs says his man was ready and willing to weigh in at 6 o'clock and that the scales provided by Nolan were not also that he suggested going at once to a bath to weigh in.

Nolan, he states, is fixing the scales. At five minutes after six Herrera was away for a meal.

I heard another statement present that it was who tampered with the scales they had balanced. Not having been present I am all hearsay to me. That Los Angeles should be the scene of such an affair grieved by no one myself. That such a should come up in the game is also to be deplored by all sportsmen of the bouts in this city free from all suspicion, present fiasco seems to largely to the stubborn fighter and his manager.

The club was right in low Abe Attell or Eddie to replace one of the men would have been giving mountain of weight and was willing and ready not have been a wise him, not having trained Hanlon was in no condition having fought for months could not have done his part. The club was right in low Abe Attell or Eddie to replace one of the men would have been giving mountain of weight and was willing and ready not have been a wise him, not having trained Hanlon was in no condition having fought for months could not have done his

NEW YORK, May 28.—It is probable that by tonight the yawls Lila, which was dismissed Saturday, and Tamerlane, which turned back following the accident to the Lila, will be off again on their race to Bermuda. The Lila will have a new mast ready this morning and it will be stepped and rigged as fast as possible in order that no more time than can be helped is lost, and as soon as she is ready both yachts will get away. The mast of the Lila broke about twenty feet from the deck. It was a new stick and the break was caused by a flaw in the wood. There was quite a sea on the side, and when the Lila began to jump in it the weak spot of the mast was soon found and snapped off. It was a fortunate thing that the accident happened when the yachts were so near home. If it had broken when they were well out to sea it might have been a long time before the yacht was picked up.

It was thought on Saturday night that the Gauntlet, the third boat which started for the Ligon cure, had put into the harbor. At the Brooklyn Yacht Club last night it was thought that the Gauntlet was so far behind when the accident happened that those on board would know nothing of it. It was said that the Gauntlet had evidently gone on and was getting quite a big lead on the other two yachts. The wind yesterday was very fluky. At times it blew quite fresh and then when the rain fell it became a flat calm, so that the Gauntlet could not have got very far away. Frank Hader of the Tamerlane said that they will catch the Gauntlet and the race will really be a match between the two yachts.

A little Topeka girl came home from church the other day and was asked what the text was. "I know it all right," she asserted. "Well, repeat it," her questioner demanded. "Don't be afraid and I will get you a bed quilt," was the astonishing answer. Investigation proved that the central thought of the sermon had been "Fear not, and I will send you a comforter."—Kansas City Journal.

FIGHT GAME NELSON WAS RUINED IN SOUTH ANXIOUS TO FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, May 28.—Aurelio Herrera is in seclusion. He thinks the police want him. They may be looking for him soon, but that will depend upon whether a warrant is issued for his arrest for battery. Smarting under the taunts of a street crowd, and having been hooted whenever he appeared upon the streets, Herrera began drinking last night and early this morning engaged in a street fight.

His party had just left a saloon when they met several young men, one of whom pointed to Herrera and said loudly enough for him to hear, "There goes the halfbreed with a yellow streak." Herrera made no reply, but with an oath tried to strike him, but the young man ran. Herrera then turned upon the man nearest him and landed a blow on the point of the jaw which put the man down and out. Herrera's friends hustled him into a cafe and later took him away in a hack. The man he had assaulted was taken into a drug store and revived, and was then taken away by his friends. He has not yet complained to the police, but Herrera does not know it.

Nelson will claim the $1000 forfeit posted by Herrera to guarantee that he would train down to weight. The forfeit money for his appearance will not be claimed. Holders of tickets to the game receipts amounted to a few dollars under $25,000. The club stands to lose about $8000.

NELSON WAS ANXIOUS TO FIGHT

BY BATTILING NELSON.
I hardly know what to say or think about Herrera. I made him several offers increasing my consent to his going in the ring at three pounds overweight to nine pounds, but he would not accept anything. I was anxious to fight and felt it my duty to do all I could to save the public from being disappointed, but when a man in my class concedes nine pounds to his opponent I consider he has gone the limit.

I certainly did all in my power and was willing to take more chances than I ought to have done. I weighed late Friday night and found 131 lbs and that was my weight at 6 o'clock. I certainly could not be expected to concede over nine pounds after the agreement had been violated, or, in fact, in any case. But I was perfectly willing to take on Herrera at 140, and wished both of us to weigh when I made my talk in the ring.

I feel more disappointed than anyone for I expected to have won $15,000 Friday night, and I have lost my time since March 20. My old daddy came on here all the way to see me fight, and after it was all over he was ready to get in the ring with Herrera himself.

NOLAN SAYS HE'D HEARD RUMORS

BY WILLIAM NOLAN.
Two days before the night of the fight I was told on the best of authority that Herrera was overweight, and as I could not come in from the training camp, I sent word to him by a close friend of Tom McCarey that I would not stand for any such trick. He was notified. I saw him Friday night and he weighed an ounce he weighed 145 pounds.

That is an old trick in the prize ring. It has been played for twenty years. One instance of it was when Batt fought to meet Jack O'Keefe, who came into the ring weighing 141 pounds when he had signed to fight at 133.

No fighter can give that much weight. The game was to make Nelson think and get him excited and tired and to try to wear him out into a consent to take Herrera on, no matter what he weighed. I would not have had my man lose that fight for the entire purse and he was not justified in even conceding nine pounds, though he did make the offer in his anxiety to please the public.

HERRERA ON MATTER OF WEIGHT

BY AURELIO HERRERA.
I can only say that I have lived up to every article of the agreement and that is all any fighter has to go by.

I was ready to weigh in at 6 o'clock, the hour agreed on. Nelson was not there. In my talk with Nelson in my dressing-room he admitted all that and still wanted me to weigh in at the ringside. I do not expect a square deal.

It was easy enough to put it all on me by offering to fight me at 140 pounds at the ringside. If that had been the agreement I would have stood by it. I was anxious to meet Nelson, but after I gave him $1000 to get this fight I meant to stick to every other agreement and ask Nelson to do the same. He did not do it.

IS M'GOVERN FIT TO IN RING

NEW YORK, May 28.—Terry and Jimmy Britt are ready to go to round contest before the Twenty Athletic Club at Madison Garden tonight. Both of them have let up in their training now waiting for the going to them into action in the blue of the Garden.

The admittance to the club as members, whose dues will make a big hit, and the advance for seat reservations, both a house and at the principal sporting resorts, where they are large.

Present indications point to a house when the two Brits go into the limelight. Britt's manager in action in the East. Attention from close follow game who have heard so much of San Francisco boys' grant. They want to see him in action at the ringside to watch he makes. There is as yet nothing. A few bets have been made of 2 to 1 on Britt.

The question as to McGovern is an open one. The naturally says McGovern is a minute. His story of Terry stick to training is fullsome. From an excellent source that Terry is far from fit; it would be manifestly unfair to public to allow that impression abroad. Expert judges of the who have watched McGovern the quiet of his wild actions, it is asserted, is in no condition. His trainers have of him. Every chance he gets away from his training camp into the limelight. He knows his real condition say sarge to put McGovern into it the clever young Californian.

U. C. TWIRLER CANNOT USE EYES

BERKELEY, May 28.—Walter Newman, the Varsity pitcher of a year ago, who has just been graduated with the class of 1906, has been in bed for the past three weeks on account of trouble with his eyes. Newman complains that there was a growth on the lids of his eyes which almost closed them. He appealed to the family physician and an operation was necessary. The growth was cut off, but left his eyes in a bad shape. He will have to wear bandages for some time to come. It is not known what caused the growth.

REMAINS ARE IDENTIFIED

MEDA IS THAT OF CARL
MACNUSSEN.

ALAMEDA, May 28.—The remains which were picked up in the bay waters off the western end of Pacific avenue last Friday have been positively identified as those of Carl Magnusson of South San Francisco. The dead man has been tending the beacon light at Point San Bruno, San Francisco, and, it was said, had disappeared.

He was in the habit of going out to the lighthouse in a small rowboat, and it is believed that while he was on duty he was overtaken by a heavy fog and was thrown overboard and drowned. A friend of his came to Alameda Saturday night and positively identified the remains.

Magnusson was twenty-eight years of age and unmarried. —★—

The Struggle in Russia.

As might have been expected, the Czar's parliament has taken the bit in its teeth, and at the very outset has assumed powers and functions expressly denied it in the rescript calling it into existence. It began by demanding financial and judicial reforms, and has now served notice on the throne that the bureaucratic ministry must be dismissed. In other words, the people's representatives have openly challenged the prerogatives the Czar expressly reserved for the crown, and in so doing have asserted the right of the democracy to rule. A crisis has therefore been precipitated which threatens to convulse the empire with civil war.

It was never the intention of the Czar that the Douma should control the national finances, let alone select the imperial ministers and hold them to an accountability for their acts. Yet that is precisely what the Douma has presumed to do. It takes the position that the ministry shall be acceptable to the parliament and responsible to that body for its acts. To concede that proposition would be to place the ultimate control of the revenues in the hands of the people. Control of the army would naturally follow such a concession.

The ministry takes the ground that by exceeding its powers and assuming functions not granted to it, the Douma has become a revolutionary body, which may be dissolved and dispersed, its members imprisoned perhaps, for sedition, but the government hesitates to take such drastic action. If the people stand firm behind the Douma the Czar must give way. The Douma was called together as a concession to the spirit of revolution, and hence is revolutionary in character. It was evident from the start that it must assume larger powers than were granted to it if it was not to be impotent and sink into innocuous desuetude. But revolutions are not wont to move backward, and in Russia its impulse is still forward. The decisive test is at hand which is to decide whether the Douma is to be practically nothing or a great deal more than it was ever intended to be.

Yesterday all the saloons in Oakland were voluntarily closed by their proprietors, but the saloons in Berkeley, Emeryville, Alameda and Fruitvale were wide open. The newspapers of those places have been loudest in demanding that the saloons in this city be closed for the next thirty days. The experience of the past two Sundays proves that the saloon closing must be general all over Alameda county and the west end of Contra Costa to be of any efficacy. If men can ride out on the street cars and in twenty minutes reach open saloons it is useless to try to keep men sober by closing up the bars in Oakland.

Joseph Cairn Simpson.

Every turfman in the United States will receive the news of the death of Joseph Cairn Simpson, founder and editor of the Breeder and Sportsman, with a pang of sorrow. The old veteran was a genial, kindly man who loved horses and all outdoor sport with ardent devotion. All while he was always on the square, he was not censorious or narrow-minded in his judgments of men. It was a grief to him that the sport of kings has become commercialized, but he loved the game too well, nevertheless, to lose interest in it because racing is now mainly conducted to facilitate the operations of the betting ring. Mr. Simpson had a rare eye for the good points of a horse, and while he was not a breeder on a large scale he was one of high repute. He was an authority on all matters of high class, clean sport, but had little sympathy with the baser and more brutal forms of what is popularly designated as sport. Mr. Simpson lived till past four score, and until very recently was in robust health. His was a lusty winter, frosty but kindly, distinguished for its unquenchable fondness for horses, dogs, the pursuits of the field and outdoor life in general. There must be a large feeling of kinship with nature in such a man. In Joseph Cairn Simpson it kept his heart young, his interest fresh and unimpaired and his heart warm in an old age that was green till the last. With his passing the thoroughbred horse has lost a friend indeed.

It is stated that the earthquake in California is responsible for the decision to dig a sea level canal at Panama. It is also stated that the eruption of Mount Pelee was responsible for the selection of Panama as the route of an interoceanic waterway instead of Nicaragua. Let us pray for a cessation of earthquakes; otherwise it may be decided not to excavate a canal at all.

Many of our contemporaries appear to be at a loss to understand why Frederick Palmer, the correspondent for Collier's Weekly, should have gone out of his way to wantonly vilify Governor Pardee. Our impression is that Palmer did that to draw attention and give factitious importance to the stupid letters he is writing. His stuff is about the poorest that we have seen sent out concerning the late calamity and the events impinging on it. We know of scores of twenty-five-dollar-a-week reporters who could turn out, without preparation, better literary matter than the dull, commonplace letters sent to Collier's by Palmer, which would be profoundly uninteresting but for the labels that they contain on the Governor of this State. Apparently Mr. Palmer has maligned the Governor as a matter of business and not for malicious reasons. He knew he must do some extra stunt if his riot was not to be thrown aside unread. He therefore coined a lie to give currency to literary rubbish.

News comes from Manila that the northern provinces of Luzon are in need of pacification, and that 3000 regulars and a large force of constabulary and native scouts have been detailed for that purpose. This would indicate that the pacification of the Philippines is an annual job—that is, unless insurrection is perennial in the islands.

Retailing Second-Hand Calumnies.

The Fresno Democrat seems unequal to the task of maligning Oakland in its own language. It must borrow (without credit) denunciations printed in other papers and rewrap them as editorials of its own composition. When an editor commits literary larceny to make himself a second-hand bar he is hard put indeed. We cannot understand why the Fresno Democrat should desire to misrepresent or vilify the people of Oakland, for surely they have done no harm to Fresno or to the Democrat. But perhaps the editor of our Fresno contemporary desires to say something that will excite remark, and knowing the proneness of people to lend an ear to evil speaking, has taken up the accusations hurled at this city without investigation, deeming them to be true, and given them its indorsement without intending to be unfair or libelous. We hope so. Still our Fresno friend might take the trouble to do some investigating on his own account instead of taking for granted the falsehoods of a garrulous female correspondent of the Portland Oregonian, who true to the inconsistencies of her sex—thought she could not properly erly express her sympathy with San Francisco unless she "roasted" Oakland and Oaklanders as a guarantee of her good faith. It was to be expected of such sheets as the Bakersfield Californian that they would be spiteful in their references, but we have not heretofore observed any disposition on the part of the Fresno Democrat to be unkind or malicious in its comments on Oakland and its inhabitants. Hence we are more surprised than grieved that it should assail us at this time.

THE YACHT.

There fell of a sudden a hush and a flutter,
As ere a great actor steps out on the stage,
And all gazing was fixed, and she heard a man mutter
"Glynn's yacht—see her come, like a bird from a cage!"
And she saw her!—she saw her, the beautiful wonder,
Swing swallowlike onward across the blue wave,
Sweep along with her gunwale now over, now under,
Awash in the sun like a silver-bright glaive—
Oh, her sails like the wings of some eagle-stroke vision
So amply were curved, so pure and so proud,
They seemed able to soar in the ether Elysian
And pierce through the opaline depths of a cloud!
A vast lily she looked, the sweet bride of the summer,
As she flew by the clumsier craft on her lee,
And to Garnet it seemed that her heart was torn from her,
As if she must cast herself into the sea—
She must swim—she must fly—she must leap to her owner,
For she was more utterly his than the boat—
Oh, surely he could not discard and disown her—
Strike at her—send her adrift and afloat!
—Julia Ditto Young in "Glynn's Wife."

COMPARISONS ARE ODIUS.

Some of the San Francisco parties who came to Oakland to perpetuate their business after being burned out of house and home have gone about stating it as a great outrage that the Oaklanders have raised rentals and the price of land. Without stopping to defend or even to discuss any such action that may have been taken, we desire to point out that there have not been anywhere near as many extortions of this sort reported from Oakland as have appeared in San Francisco's own prints concerning the doings out on Fillmore street. Fillmore street has about the same status in this regard as this side of the bay. From all that has appeared in print, the property owners of Fillmore street have been infinitely more strenuous in their efforts to profit than anybody in Oakland.—Alameda Argus.

Editor TRIBUNE: I have noticed a sign on the door leading to the toilet at the Southern Pacific station, Seventh and Broadway, for the use of men, closed for repairs, and the same has been there for the last week, and no access to the toilet. Now, this should not be, and should be remedied at once. It is a great hardship to the many thousand strangers daily at the Broadway and Seventh street station. It is a burning shame at this time that such should be tolerated by the city of Oakland. Please give this a send-off in your paper. You will oblige a subscriber and advertiser in your paper. RHEUMATISM TROUBLESOME PAINS AND ACHES

While Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter because of the cold and dampness of a changing atmosphere, it is by no means a Winter disease entirely. Persons in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has collected, feel its troublesome pains and aches all the year round. The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter, which the natural avenues of bodily waste have failed to carry off. This refuse matter coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. Rheumatic persons are almost constant sufferers; the nagging pains in joints and muscles, are ever present under the most favorable climatic conditions, while exposure to dampness or an attack of indigestion will often bring on the severer symptoms even in warm, pleasant weather. Liniments, plasters, lotions, etc., relieve the pain and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative; because Rheumatism is not a disease that can be rubbed away or drawn out with a plaster. S. S. S. is the best treatment for Rheumatism; it goes down into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by neutralizing the acid and driving it out, and building up the thin, sour blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, S. S. S. will not injure the system in the least. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice without charge.

Proof, that's the stuff that counts, not talk

May 28th, 1906.

It is a fact that hundreds and hundreds of S. F. people have selected Kahn's as their shopping place. It is a fact that hundreds of these selfsame people have also advised their friends to trade at Kahn's. It is a fact, that Kahn's are doing the greater part of this new found business and also a fact that this business at Kahn's is daily strengthening.

Now, if you want PROOF of these facts, step in at any hour, and look around at the busy counters, at the hundreds of active sales-folks, at the constant procession of the businesslike little cash carriers, at the rush at the wrapping desks, at the hundreds of packages sent out on the wagons.

Look into the big, busy receiving rooms, where scores of cases of goods are daily received, look at the ever changing displays of merchandise behind the counters, and you'll have PROOF that cannot be denied.

Your eyesight cannot deceive you, and when you hear, as you probably will, time and time again, expressions of surprise at our assortments, of admiration of our methods and of appreciation of our low prices you'll have the reason in a nutshell for the crowds that assemble here.

Now, these people didn't ALL know Kahn's when they came to Oakland to buy—they came in this store as strangers and found it profitable to trade here, and continued to do so. In fact, they found it so profitable and so satisfactory that they brought in their friends. There is absolutely no doubt of this, and if these people (with all of Oakland to choose from, where every store was to them upon an equal basis) selected Kahn's after 30 days of "shopping around," isn't that pretty good PROOF that Kahn's is a pretty good store?

And now, if that is the case, don't you think, also, that Kahn's ought to be a pretty good store for you to patronize?

Think it over. It's common sense reasoning.

RARE GROUSE IN BAY STATE.

Massachusetts has in a cover down on Martha's Vineyard a colony of eighty or more pinnated grouse, scientifically known as the Tympanuchus cupido. Marvellous as it may seem, these are said to be the only living representatives of this species in the entire world.

Natural history museums, taxidermists and students of nature have been pursuing them for years, until now specimens are said to be worth anywhere from $100 to $200 each. Recently a bill was passed in the legislature putting a close time on these birds until 1911.

The penalty for killing a pinnated grouse or having one in one's possession is $100. Hitherto the fine was $20, which was not enough to discourage hunting for museum specimens.

Dr. Field, chairman of the Massachusetts Fish and Game Association, says: "The pinnated grouse formerly roamed all over the country, from Maine to Virginia and east of the Allegheny mountains."

"It is a most delicious food bird, but it has been hunted to the vanishing point. The flock at Martha's Vineyard is the only one in the world. I intend to put a man in charge to protect it from specimen hunters."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

AMERICAN PUPILS TO SING.

Every Singer in Grand Opera in Paris Will Be a Debutant or Debutante.

PARIS.—American visitors to Paris this spring will have the pleasure of hearing French and Italian operas sung in one of the best theaters by American singers, with the additional novelty that every singer will be a debutant or debutante. The project, which originated with A. Beaumont of Paris and New York, has the enthusiastic approval of Jean de Reszais, M. Gailhard, manager of the grand opera of Paris, and of Oscar Hammerstein, who, in an interview with the originator of the plan, said that it is one of the finest projects conceived for some time in the musical world.

J. H. Duval, the American baritone, who for three years sang with great success in Italy, has undertaken to direct the performances and will organize the companies. More than one hundred and twenty voices have already been heard by him and out of these he has found usually good who will sing in the chosen operas.

The idea of giving a series of performances of opera in Paris by American singers was suggested by the large number of Americans who come annually to study under the great singing masters, and whose ambition it is to make their names in opera in Europe before returning to America.

A visit to the different singing teachers shows that more than two-thirds of their pupils are Americans. M. Jean de Reszais, Sorbelle, delle Sedie, Marchesi, Mme. Nevada, Marie Riva, Mrs. Duff and Frank King Clark have all scores of American pupils preparing for opera, and the only very few ever get a hearing at the Opera or Opera Comique.

The performances will be given under the auspices of a committee of patrons consisting of Mrs. Clinch-Smith, Mrs. Washington, wife of the former ambassador to London, Princess Galitzine, Mrs. Rutherford Stuyvesant, Mrs. Hershey Eddy, Mrs. Parsons, Countess Gredon and Mrs. Taber.—From the New York American.

TONIGHT—BIG HANDICAP CONTEST TO RUN THROUGHOUT WEEK.

mobile and a juggernaut, but they amount to the same thing when a fool chauffeur is at the wheel and an owner is on the back seat who is so timid that, paradoxically, he allows that terror of the road, the Boy Driver, to do what he will. As a result of this combination of recklessness and timid city streets and country roads are dangerous to man and beast when the Boy Driver is abroad with The Man-Arrow-At-His-Chauffeur.

Those of the public who have not been cut down before they could protest against the rushing juggernauts have raised a cry against these dangerous machines, or, rather, against these safe machines dangerously driven. Automobileists of experience and enthusiasm, the men who realize that automobiling is a sport, not a crime, have been loudest in their protest against the devil-may-care chauffeur and the owner who does not keep him in check. Automobile clubs and manufacturers' associations have joined in the protest as well.

There is only one way to stop it—a good long term of jail, not a fine, for the convicted chauffeur with a perpetual revocation of his license, and a good round money penalty, say the value of the car, for the owner.

Then it will be safe for other people to venture on the streets and roads.

TRACTION COMPANY PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE

Violated the Terms of Its Franchise and Now Offers a Check to Pay the Super- visors to Try and Avoid the Consequences.

This morning, Attorney Engs representing the Oakland Traction Consolidated appeared before the Board of Supervisors in executive session of the Board of Supervisors and tendered a check of $1470 as the tax on twenty-one cars of that road, at the rate of $70 a car for fourteen years, which the company had not paid into the County Treasury.

The tender of this check was made as a consequence of the criticism of the corporation in question, at the meeting of the Supervisors one week ago by E. H. Marwedel, vice president of the Fruitvale Board of Trade and secretary and treasurer of the Pacific Coast Trade Cloth Company.

Mr. Marwedel charged, at that meeting that the Oakland Traction Consolidated was giving to Fruitvale only the same service which it was giving to San Leandro, many miles further along the road. He asserted that this was done regardless of a promise of the corporation to give Fruitvale a service of 7 1/2 minutes. He also claimed that the present corporation had discontinued the ten-minute service which was given Fruitvale when the cars were operated by the company to which the Traction Consolidation is the successor.

On these grounds Mr. Marwedel asked for the cancellation of the franchise of the company in question.

This demand was also made on the ground that the Oakland Traction Consolidated had not paid its annual tax on the cars it operated over the run to Fruitvale and beyond for the past fourteen years.

Mr. Marwedel said that he did not know how many cars were run by the Oakland Traction Consolidated on that run, but he did know that the franchise under which it was operating called for a license fee of $5 for each car per year. He also knew on the authority of the County Auditor that not one dollar of that tax had been paid into the county treasury.

He claimed that the Oakland Traction Consolidated had, by reason of this evasion of taxes, forfeited its franchise.

The matter was continued until today when it was to be considered by the Committee of the Whole of the Board of Supervisors, together with officials of the Oakland Traction Consolidated and Mr. Marwedel.

This morning, however, Attorney Engs appeared for the Oakland Traction Consolidated. It was expected that Manager Kelly would be present, because Mr. Marwedel, in his address one week ago, referred to him in his professional capacity. Mr. Marwedel was promptly on hand and for nearly three-quarters of an hour, the question was discussed behind closed doors.

District Attorney Allen was brought into the chamber.

Mr. Marwedel repeated his charges of inadequate service on the part of the Oakland Consolidated, as he did also of the evasive evasion by that concern of the payment of the tax on its cars required by the franchise.

MAKES ADMISSION.

Attorney Engs admitted that the tax in question had not been paid and offered the Supervisors a check in the sum of $1470 in satisfaction of the same. He said the company had been operating twenty-one cars, the tax on which, for one year, would be $1470 and for fourteen years would be fourteen times that, or $1470. He offered the check in question in satisfaction of the same, admitting that the tax had not been paid during that period. He asked the Supervisors to accept the same.

Mr. Marwedel said that in offering the check the Oakland Traction Consolidated admitted that it had been evading the payment of its just obligation to the county and that he could not understand how anybody or any corporation could try to evade the payment of his or its obligations to the county, and still lay claim to honest intent, more especially when that individual or corporation derived his or its power to operate from the county.

At the same time, however, the tender of the check in question did not satisfy the demand of the people of Fruitvale for the promised seven and one-half minute service. That service had been promised and the promise had been broken. If the Oakland Traction Consoldated did not intend to accommodate the public what right had it to a public franchise. It was also a question as to how many cars the corporation in question was operating. The number might and it might not be many more. That would have to be determined by some official of the county. The officials of the Oakland Traction Consolidated, he expected, would be there to answer his charges, but none of them who had charge of the operation of the road, had put in an appearance. It was due to them to explain to the Supervisors why they had not only failed to pay their car tax but also why they pretended to operate under a franchise granted by the people without giving the people adequate service.

Attorney Engs said the officials of the company did not really understand Mr. Marwedel's complaint.

It was agreed, however, that the management of the Oakland Traction Consolidated would be represented at the meeting of the Supervisors Monday next and give their side of the case.

The check in question and the car tax which it involves were referred to the District Attorney.

SKIFF'S SECOND VICTIM

Another Body Lost From Light-House Boat, is Found.

The badly decomposed body of August Carlson, a lighthouse tender at Beacon Light, off South San Francisco, was discovered floating in the bay yesterday near the plant of the Union Salt Works, five miles from Hayward. The remains were found by a Japanese, who notified the coroner and the body was removed to the branch morgue at Hayward. Owing to the fact that the body had been in the water for some time the features were unrecognizable, but the remains were identified by means of a receipt from Tippecanoe Lodge, No. 111, of the Red Men, which was found on the body.

Magnussen's body was found last Friday floating in the bay off Alameda, being identified by means of papers found in the clothing. The coroner's jury in the latter case returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning.

CLOSE SALOONS THIRTY MILES FROM BERKELEY

Fight to Be Made Before Trustees Tonight to Make College Town a Dry Place.

BERKELEY, May 28.—The committee of one Hundred, together with delegates from the different churches, will wait upon the Board of Town Trustees tonight in an effort to close unconditionally all the saloons of Berkeley outside the mile limit. Two weeks ago at a regular meeting of the trustees petitions touching on the saloon question were presented to the board, but they were not inclined to discuss the matter, and so the petitions were shelved without any action taken on them.

But now the temperance forces under the leadership of Town Engineer McClure, will invade the council chamber and endeavor to bring the saloon question to a head.

It is the proposal of the churches of Berkeley that the saloons for thirty miles in all directions about Berkeley be closed and kept closed until such time as the officials in San Francisco open their saloons.

AWARD BIG "C" TO CREWS OF U. C.

BERKELEY, May 28.—Although the Varsity boat crew has not been entered in a single boating regatta outside of the interclass one held two months ago, the members of the crew have been voted the Varsity emblem, the big "C." This is the first time in the history of the University that a team or crew has been given the University letter without having engaged in a contest against either Stanford University or Washington.

The freshman crew also will get its class of 1906 numerals and be privileged to wear them on the sweaters. Both crews had already been picked by Coach Garnet some time before the earthquake and would have participated in the annual races against Washington and Stanford. So the ex-
